

LATE LOCAL NEWS

Bus loaded with children being taken to St. James Parochial school struck by street car at S. State and 25th streets this morning. Sarah Orr, Helen Hughes, Robert Hughes and Sister Aloysius cut and bruised. Others shaken up.

Peter Macka, his wife and two small children, and John Mago, his wife and two children rescued by policemen and firemen in fire at 1410 W. Chicago ave., early this morning. Fire loss of $200.

Fire in Kurz-Downey box factory, Blackhawk and North Branch streets, this morning did $1,500 damage. Box car containing lumber valued at $3,000 also destroyed.

Trial of millionaire packers postponed until Monday morning, in order to allow summoning of new venire from which to secure jury.

Four youths and young woman arrested in front of Tuckhorn Hotel, 503 S. 5th ave., early today. Police allege the men tried to force the girl, Hulda Anderson, 26 E. 45th street, to enter hotel. Three were released.

Understood residents of Wilson ave. district are planning to take a few shots at Lake Shore drive auto speeders. Fine business.

Clyde A. Winch, arrested, charged with attack on Ethel Tilbury, 13, who was placed in his care by the juvenile court, is alleged to have made full confession to Capt. Halpin.

Illinois Central suburban train

"side swiped" by switch engine at 12th street. Engines partly demolished. Cars jumped tracks. Engineer and firemen on switch engines saved their lives by jumping. Several passengers, cut and bruised, hurried to nearby drug stores.

Thirty-fifth street car and Wentworth ave. car collided at their intersection. Passengers panic stricken. Several bruised.

John Gay, ex-convict, found guilty of manslaughter for the murder of Policeman Patrick Fogarty, which occurred July 3, at Pearce and S. Halstead streets.

Police searching for George Rabeneau and John Stacey, missing members of Kaufman murder quartet. Thought they will try to leave esome gulf port.

James Monahan, 340 S. Clark street, became intoxicated last night, opened patrol box, called for wagon to "pick up a drunk," and crawled into it when it arrived.

Henry Miller, 4436 Dearborn, who escaped from asylum at Kenkakee, month ago, arrested. Returned to his home, chased out his wife and barred the doors. Police forced window and overpowered Miller. He is said to have escaped from the asylum four times.

A Black Record.

"Did your new maid have a spotless character?"

"No, her former mistress had spilt ink on it."—Baltimore American.